...INDIVIDUALLY

The strength of a nation lies in the individuality of its citizens. Only this quality can produce the original thought which sustains greatness. In Lawrence High School individuality is a recognized quality. During our years as underclassmen we moved in many different circles, uniting only for class activities. However, at the advent of our Senior year, the class of 1961 became more closely knit; most of the individuals contributed useful ideas and much appreciated labor to the class good. The many individuals found that they had a common bond with their classmates as they remembered the past, lived the present and looked forward to the future's dreams and responsibilities.

COOPERATIVELY...

The success of the Senior Class and the unity of the entire school is due primarily to the student leaders and the students who create a balance conducive to the spirit of cooperation, which is an indigenous quality at Lawrence High. Through such organizations as the Student Council and through the efforts of the class advisors and officers, a system of government, on which the effectiveness of the classes relies, has been successfully established.

Clubs and activities hold an important place in the life of each student: they are a place for meeting together with friends and enjoying oneself, but more than that, they aid in developing the qualities of leadership, individuality, and fellowship. Every club must have those who lead and direct its affairs, capably and effectively; is directed towards certain goals and ideals which help to develop individuality; provides an opportunity for students to assemble and enjoy each others company; therefore they promote fellowship. Through our clubs and activities we live to learn and learn to live socially.

SOCIALLY...

The purpose of our country's public schools is to offer the student an education in both academic and social fields. Thus, scholastically refers to learning in diverse areas. In a time as competitive as ours, excellence is necessary for success, whether it be in business or college life. Consequently, the nation and schools maintain certain awards for upholding honor, loyalty, and service and achieving good citizenship and academic excellence. Our school provides such awards while scholarship throughout the year is rewarded by admitting outstanding students and citizens to the National Honor Societies. The nation recognizes the superior student through awards and scholarships from The National Merit Scholarship Association. Thus, Lawrence High recognizes that a well-rounded education is necessary to prepare its students for the future.

SCHOLASTICALLY

ADMINISTRATIVELY...

We recognize our superintendent, principal and vice-principal as outstanding leaders of our school and community because of their perseverance and everlasting activity in the organization of school affairs. Moreover, they have become to us not only friends, personally interested in our welfare, but also persons deserving of our high admiration and esteem. The Guidance Department has been especially necessary for us in this year of decision. All through the years, we, when wanting or needing assistance, have found individual aid and personal advice in their counsel.

ACADEMICALLY...

In these past four years, the formative years of our intellectual character, our teachers have guided us toward a constructive way of life. They have been faithfully dedicated to their duties, and with patience and understanding, have given us a sturdy foundation on which to build a productive future. We are infinitely grateful for this indispensable instruction and guidance.

The industrious work of the offices has been efficient and essential. Without a competent business staff, an organization is neither stable nor effective, for "the core makes the apple."

To grow athletically means not only to develop agility in a certain sport but also to develop a sense of teamwork and good sportsmanship. In playing any sport, one is not an individual, he is part of a team striving for the same objective. A good athlete is not only a person who is able to compete successfully but he is also a person who is able to gain the respect and admiration of both his teammates and his opponents. Participating actively in sports will certainly aid in developing these worthwhile traits if a sportsman is a good sport as well as an athlete.

ATHLETICALLY

from the editors...

We, the Editors of the 1961 Lowrencion, wish to express our sincere thanks to the diligent and enthusiastic members of the various yearbook stoffs; to Mr. Robert Vantine, our printer's representative, whose interest and guidance aided us in planning the yearbook; to Mr. Poul Wosseth who so patiently untangled our problems; to Mr. Thomas Desmond who spurred on the Business Stoff to their tremendous financial success; to Mr. Herbert Sundermon whose artistic advice was greatly appreciated; to Sondy Buck, a freshman, who so willingly took and developed our lost-minute pictures; to the merchants and residents of Folmouth who made gracious contributions; to the students of Lowrence High who purchased the yearbook; and to Mr. Russell B. Marshall who encouraged and supported our efforts.

Without the interest, co-operation and guidance of these people, the Lawrencion, a memorial marking four years of educational and social growth, would never have been possible.

Jaskun, literary ed.; and Prudence Pacheco, business manager.

HYMN OF LOYALTY

HYMN OF LOYALTY

O Lawrence High, we offer tribute to thee,
Mentor and Guide, who led us on our way.
Hold high the torch that lights us to our duty;
We shall not falter when from thee we stray.
O Lawrence High School, Whate'er betide,
We still shall deem thee our Mentor and our Guide.

O Lawrence High, thine ancient mission serving,
Create in us a spirit ringing true;
Teach us to walk life's pathway still unswerving,
Ready to meet life's problems, old and new.
We shall be loyal, O Lawrence High,
We shall be striving to keep thy banner high.

CLASS ODE

Now the time has come, when from thee we part.
We pay our tribute to you now.
We were forever loyal, honor with love and service.
O Lawrence High to thee we're true. In every way we praise you.
We give our thanks; we give our trust.
Our memories linger on.
And so to you, we bid adieu. We say farewell, Lawrence
High.
Our future's bright, our hopes are high.
Lawrence, good-bye.

His wise counseling, dry discerning wit ond his infinitely stimulating intellect extend even beyond the classroom. We express our heortfelt thanks to Mr. Jones, without whose sensitive and realistic aid, the Closs of 1961 could never have been o success. His profound character ond "tweedy" oppearance shall continue to inspire ond remoin with us throughout the years to come.

A WORD

From Our Principal

There are many things that should be said in the annual message of the Principal.

I am concerned about the future and the part young people will play in forming this future of theirs. Science, politics and domestic and world problems dominate the thinking of all of us.

We have all seen on television and read in magazines and newspapers of the methods and the ambitions of communists to dominate the world. Their unwillingness to understand the feelings and views of other people and their clever, well-planned methods of gaining control are things with which we are all familiar. You, as young Americans, have an obligation that should be pursued with a passion. Your obligation is to be patriotic, dedicated Americans. Patriotism is more than flag waving; it is something that you must live and practice every day of your life. To love one's country, to defend, praise and believe in it is not an old fashioned ideal; it must become the latest fashion of all Americans, of all people who still have the privilege of living in a democracy if we are to preserve this country of ours.

My concern for the future is my concern for democracy, and for what you young people can and will do to preserve it. The millions of dollars, we, as a country, spend annually to combat juvenile delinquency and the millions spent on law enforcement dramatize all too clearly that many of our young people need somehow to be taught patriotism and need to understand that acts of violence and vandalism are not expressions of democracy.

If we are to accept the challenge issued by President Kennedy, "... to see what you can do for your country ..." let all young people approach graduation with a determination to dedicate themselves as symbols of democracy to live and to act as good Americans.

"A man who is contented with what he has done will never be famous for what he will do." Let us not be content with ourselves; don't leave patriotism and loyalty for someone else. You take an active part in the affairs of your community, state and country. You do your share to make your generation famous for keeping America the strong leader among the peace-loving peoples of the world.

Mr. Russell B. Marshall

FRESHMAN YEAR

From its first class meeting, December 16, 1957, the class of 1961 was to be identified as a class of "firsts".

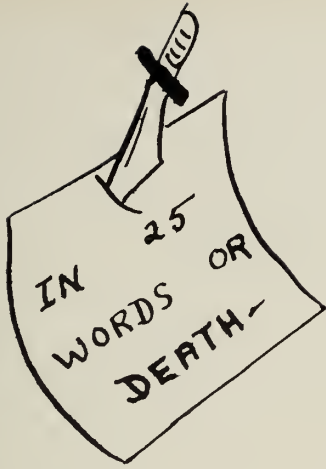

We began our freshman year with a Victory Dance after the basketball game with Provincetown. As our first "first" in L.H.S. history, the class sponsored a basketball rally with Mr. Morris as our energetic master of ceremonies. The traditional class project was a "Cross Country" Minstrel Show. Our own chorus line, "The Rockettes" and Jackie Gorrett, our imported Hawaiian, proved to be the piece de resistance of the evening. Culminating this year was the Freshman-Sophomore Prom, "Moonlight on the Riviera". Amidst the attractive garden scene, Miss June Gill, escorted by Richard Phillips, made a lovely queen.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

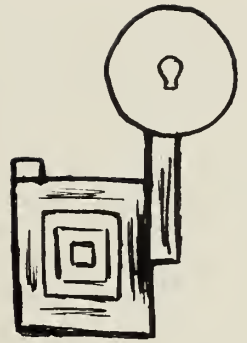

Our Sophomore year was one of the busiest and most successful. A rally for the Wareham football game sparked our underdog team to a 6-6 tie. Following this was a "first" which has since become tradition: we established Chivalry Week and Dance, over which Norman Benoit reigned as the "most chivalrous boy". The traditional Bean Supper displayed the ingenuity of the class, as it presented both a variety show and a one-act play. By sponsoring a second basketball rally, we established a precedent in Lawrence High School. As March roared in, many proud Sophomores eagerly flashed their new class rings about the school. But the year would not have been complete without the customary Twirp Week and the Sodie Hawkins Dance which allowed every girl a chance to date the "mon of her dreams".

JUNIOR YEAR

Highlighting our Junior year were several major events. It began very early when the class sponsored an enthusiastic rally before the Somerset football game. We then participated with the seniors in a glamorous trip to Boston Ballroom; for most of us it was our first time on television. For our traditional winter pram, the Snowball, we chose the name and theme, "Xanadu". The dazzling decorations in the gymnasium represented the castle of Kublai Khan, over whose kingdom Virginia Griffin and James Sylvia reigned. That year the class money-raising project provided another "first" when we held a basketball double-header: in the first game the junior girls swiftly overcame the boys, winning by one point, while the boys' varsity, wearing boxing gloves, played an even match with the girls' varsity in the second game. Climaxing the year was the Junior-Senior Prom, "Blue Grotto". This theme was impressively depicted in an underwater paradise with Yvonne Brackett and William Payne as king and queen.

SENIOR YEAR

Seniors, at last! This was the year when we would finally be able to use the senior privilege, the center staircase and reserved lunchroom section. We would also be rushing about filling out college applications, memorizing lines for the traditional play, sitting for our yearbook portraits and ultimately participating in all the senior week activities. An hilarious mystery-comedy, "In 25 Words—Or Death", staged by the Senior Class early in December, proved to be one of the most successful class projects. Under the leadership of Judy Amend and Julianne MacFadden, our able and energetic editors-in-chief, a most attractive and unique yearbook was published.

Other "firsts", a splendid All-Senior choir and Senior Work day were both very enjoyable and fun for everyone. Ultimately our senior year had to terminate and so it did with the traditional banquet, Senior Pram, Class Day and another impressive graduation ceremony on June 6th. As the Class of 1961 marched from their graduation, they left Lawrence High School proudly, but with heavy hearts.

THE CLASS OF 1962

Known for its tremendous financial success, the Junior Class looked forward to renewing several traditions at Lawrence High School in 1960-61.

The class actively began the year with its second annual candy sale, which proved to be very successful. "Wonderland By Night" was the theme for the traditional Snowball highlighting the winter season. The gymnasium was transformed into a winter scene by night with a ceiling of blue icicles, decorations of greens and holly and a sleigh the center of attention. Miss Dale Grissom and Ted Benttinen reigned over this spectacular affair.

A unique Roaring Twenties Dance was the spring project of the class. Many attractive and gay costumes of the period were worn by those attending the dance. The year was culminated by the Junior-Senior Prom which was well-attended and most successful. The Senior Class certainly appreciated the time and thought involved to produce such beautiful effects and to ensure that a good time be had by all.

With the advent of graduation and the termination of the school year, the Junior Class could then look forward to the Senior year awaiting them.

The Sophomore Class has been very active and successful in sponsoring its traditional activities this year under the leadership and guidance of its officers and advisors.

The Third Annual Chivalry Week and Dance were enthusiastically received and carried out early in November. It gave the boys an opportunity to disprove the popular saying that "chivalry is dead". Class rings were chosen in January but this year, round as well as square ones were ordered.

A most successful Bean Supper followed by two plays was held according to Sophomore tradition. Sadie Hawkins Dance and Twirp Week proved to be as much fun as always when the girls played the man's role for an unforgettable week.

ATHLETICALLY

"Spirit we've got, coordination we've not!"

"Gunner" Robbins hits again.

Will it?

Cool, calm and collected.

"Clippers, Clippers . . ."

"Keep it going, keep it going, down, down, down!"

Victory!

Loyal fans brave the weather to cheer the team on.

"Have you got that spirit? Yeah, mon!"

BABE RUTH AWARD

The class of 1961 proudly presents the Babe Ruth Award to Janice Lee Medieros. Janice, voted most athletic, best exemplifies good sportsmanship on and off the field.

During her four years at Lawrence High, Janice has been an active member of the softball and basketball teams. In addition to participating in many outside activities, she has been Co-editor of the Student Intelligencer, a Student Council Representative and a senior member of the Lookout Club.

We are confident that Janice will achieve her teaching aspirations, following a successful college career.

The Class of 1961 proudly presents the Babe Ruth Award to Norman Luke Benoit. He has been an active participant and leader in L.H.S. sports.

Skip was widely recognized for his football capabilities this year: he was elected to the All State Class C, All Conference, All Cape and All Diocese teams as right tackle. He has well served his school as the football team's Co-captain, the baseball team's catcher and a member of the Key Club.

We extend our congratulations and best wishes for the future.

CHEERLEADERS

"Three plus eight, boy they're great! They're the squad that really rates! Has everybody seen our girls?" Of course everyone has seen Morris's 11! They are the most attractive and most vivacious cheerleaders on and off the Cape. With their catchy new songs and enthusiasm, they have rallied the school spirit and spurred the teams on to victory.

Forward, l. to r.: Caralyn Ferreira, Marge Pacheca, Betsy Miller. Rear: Derna Grenga, Betsy McGilvray, Diane Sawyer, Prudy Pacheca, Ann Kayajan, Linda Broadbent, Jean Cline.

Our attractive and spirited cheerleaders in action.

Sitting, l. to r.: Nancy Swan, Sally Lawrence, Carale Miller, Brenda Gray, Gretchen Burrough, Barbara Barstow, Beverly Burwell, Kathy Varaa, Carol Sylvia. Second row: Beth Fling, Pat Jaskun, Mae Childs, Judy LeBlanc, Barbara Garrett, Nancy Pease, Jaan Richards, Pat Peck, Sue Smith. Third row: Judy Amend, Julianne MacFadden, Bannie McGilvray, Nancy Burrough, Diane

PEP SQUAD

"Left step, right step, back step, forward, to the rear march." and there goes the Pep Squad right through the middle of the band! This group of forty-five girls has become an outstanding precision marching team; their routines have displayed originality, cooperation and hard work, and they are a definite asset to the cheering section.

"Left step, right step, back step, forward, to the rear march."

President Gretchen Burrough and Caller Brenda Gray led the Pep Squad for a most successful year.

Forward: Jgne Cahaon. Rear, l. to r.: Kit Barnard, Judy Parker, Peggy Cummings, Peggy Corey, Pat Couto, Jaan Nutt, Lais Smith, Cathy Burroughs, Carol Matte.

MAJORETTES

This year, under the direction of Mr. James Stevens, the L.H.S. majorettes marched at all major Falmouth parades and the school rallies and football games. The girls did a splendid job, making their uniforms and devising several new maneuvers which proved a great success.

Majorettes practice one of their eye-catching routines.

Halftime and the L.H.S. Band performs spiritedly and most musically.

The Lawrence High School Band, under the supervision of Mr. James Stevens and the direction of Michael Llewellyn, has approximately forty-five members. This popular organization plays at all joint concerts with other schools, major Falmouth parades, rallies and football games as well as other school and civic functions.

The Band, Majorettes and Pep Squad proudly represent their school at all the football games.

FOOTBALL

The spirited L.H.S. Clippers played a fine season despite the record. The breaks just were not in the Clippers' favor. Their bruising line play won the respect of all opposing teams while versatility was displayed by the backs: they could break away, drive up the middle or pass. The season was terminated with a very gratifying 32-12 victory over Barnstable in the traditional Thanksgiving Day Game.

BASKETBALL

1960-1961 SUMMARY

The L.H.S. Clippers were the "Cinderello" team of the Cope this year. They were picked for no better than sixth place this year by the pre-season experts, but to the surprise of everybody except Coach Gaddis, the Clippers ended the season in a tie (10 wins and 6 losses) for third place with Bourne High School. The team exemplified the meaning of teamwork as they closed out their season with five straight wins with each of the five starters playing a major role in all their upsets and victories.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Co-captains Janice Medeiros and Mimi Robbins.

The Girls' Basketball Team, under the coaching of Miss Peggy Savage, got off to a slow start this year, but soon showed signs of improvement especially near the end of the year. The girls had no chance of becoming the Cape Champions but put up a fighting effort and nearly dismantled two of the top teams on the Cape. This year the team will only be losing two members so that its bulk will be ready and waiting for next year's competition.

CROSS-COUNTRY AND SOCCER

SOCCER RECORD

An undefeated season was climaxed by the capture of the Southeastern Massachusetts title which gave the cross-country team the first athletic trophy of the school year. The Harriers, led by Captains John Costa and Russell Sharpe, compiled nine wins this year, and added to the eight of last year, gives them a total of seventeen undefeated dual meets. The team looks forward to a bright future as its best runners are presently juniors and sophomores.

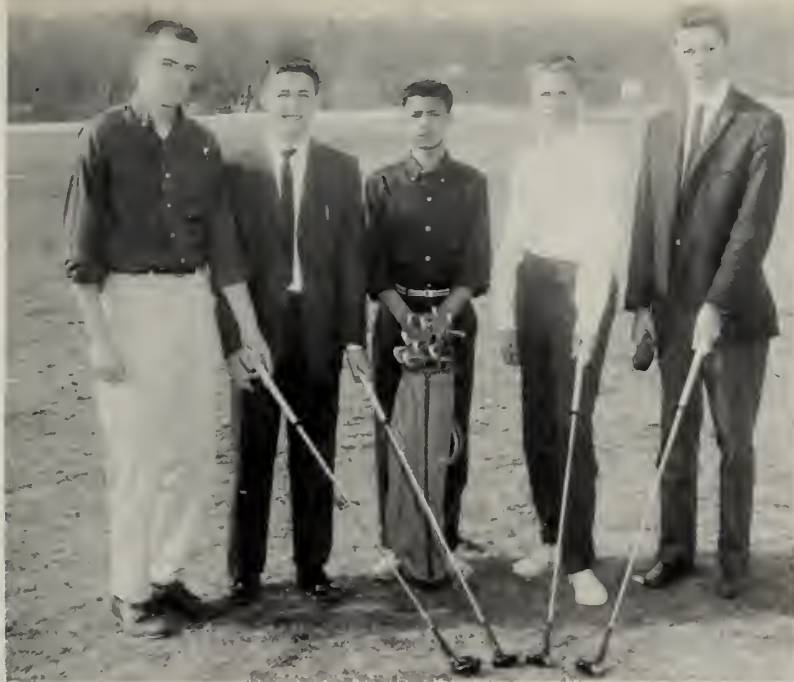

Throughout the season the soccer players showed a fine sense of sportsmanship and competitive spirit under the leadership of Co-captains Gerry Issaksan and Mike Verissima. Mr. Taran, in his first coaching assignment, succeeded in building a patent team which should be a genuine threat next year.
